OBITUARY. FREDERICK H. WOOD. Frederick H. Wood, son of Daniel Wood, of Upper Montclair, N. J., died in that place early yesterday morning, after a lingering illness.

SISTER ALVARI. Sister Alvari, of Mount St. Dominick Convent, died there on Friday night. She was thirty-three years old. Her funeral was held yesterday in the convent chapel, where a solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. P. Byrne. Burial was in St. Peter's Cemetery, Jersey City.

SAID THE HOUSE WAS HAUNTED. Mrs. Moore persisted in her belief in court and was fined $5. It cost Mrs. Mary Moore, of No. 105 Pacific-st., Newark, $5 yesterday for persisting that the house in which she lived was haunted.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH CHECK RAISING. Belle J. Mumans, of Montclair, arrested in Wilkes-Barre, Penn. Montclair, Sept. 4.—Belle J. Mumans, twenty-four years old, was examined to-day before Recorder Ames on the charge of issuing and raising bogus checks, and was committed to jail in default of $500 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. She was arrested last night by Police Sergeant Gallagher.

BOOTBLACKS MUST BE LICENSED. Morristown, Sept. 4.—A move was made by the Common Council of this city last night to drive bootblacks and traveling musicians from the city. It is alleged they are nuisances, and in order to get rid of them the Aldermen passed an ordinance requiring them to take out licenses. The license fee is $2 and for musicians $5, for each year or any part of a year. No bootblacks under fourteen years old will be licensed.

WOULD NOT TESTIFY WITHOUT PAY. Newark, Sept. 4.—Because of the refusal of W. W. Medding, a painter, to testify unless he was paid, the examination of Mrs. Gisela Weingelder had to be postponed by Justice Grant last evening. Minnie Burns, of No. 7 Springfield-ave., a barmaid, made the complaint against Mrs. Weingelder, who accused her of threatening to reveal the contents of a letter she had written to her. Medding was letting her see the letter, and she heard the conversation between the two women. It was on this account that he was subpoenaed. As first he wanted $2 to tell of the dispute, and finally $100, he refused to be believed, whereupon the painter accused her of threatening to reveal the contents of a letter she had written to her. AMONG THE ORANGES. A DOUBLE WEDDING AT ST. VENANTII'S CHURCH. THE ORANGE ATHLETIC CLUB TO HAVE A FOOTBALL TEAM THIS SEASON—INTERESTING GOSSIP OF SOCIETY.

The Orange Athletic Club syndicate has decided on retaining its athletic grounds at the Orange Oval for another year, and to put in the field practically the same nine that has proved so strong an attraction this year. Nearly all the members of the nine have signed for the coming year, and it is safe to say that the four-fifths will still float over the Oval next year.

A double wedding took place in Orange on Wednesday afternoon of considerable interest to the German residents of the city. Otto Kazenmeyer, Jr., was married to Miss Mary Josephine Leber, daughter of G. Leber, of Reiburg, Germany. The ceremony took place at the rectory of St. Venantius Church, in Henry-st., at 3 p. m., and was solemnized by the Rev. P. A. Wenzel, pastor of the church. The best man was Gustave Kunk, and the maid of honor was Miss Josephine Leber.
